Traders Still Contending That Further Reaction Is Due

PRICES, HOWEVER, IMPROVED AT ONCE

Unexpectedly Good Bank Statement a Factor.

BEAR ELEMENT DISCOMFITED

Market Closed Strong and Active-Improvement in Railroad and Other Bonds.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 .- There was little indication in the stock market today of the nervousness which affected values unfavorably yesterday. A more sensible view of the Treasury call appeared to be taken universally. Nevertheless, many maintained the position that on general principles the specula tion was entitled to more of a reaction than it had yet experienced and operations on this theory, as well as the with holding of orders that might otherwise have gone in, brought about some as pect of irregularily to prices.

But there was a general tendency to improvement almost from the start and this was stimulated by the unexpectedly favorable character of the bank state ment. It had been generally believed that another important loss in surplus reserve would be suffered, but this was prevented by a large reduction in loans While it was considered that probably this reduction represented merely a transfer of accommodations of the trust companies, the fact remained to the discompanies, the fact remained to the dis-comfiture of the bear element that a small increase was secured to the sur-plus reserve. There was a dearth of other news and influences. The market closed strong and active. Rallroad and other bonds made improvements.

COTTON MARKET QUIET AND EASIER

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 .- The cotton narket was quiet and easier today and ost about all of the recovery it made late yesterday from the low level which had been established in the early trading. This was because the Liverpool markets declined a little more than should be expected, and the movement markets declined a fittle more than should be expected, and the movement of the crop for the week turned out larger than had been anticipated and there was further scattered local and Souhern selling, and more pressure from the bear element. The decline in prices reached a maximum of 6 to 7 points, which brought December down to 9.56, January to 9.55, March 9.78, and May 9.81. There was so much demand at that level, however, and so many large buying orders were encountered on the scale-down in the hands of brokers that there was no disposition to crowd the market further. The result was a steadier tone in the later trading. There was, however, no snap to the market and it closed quiet, and barely steady at the decline with the cheff support coming from the buying orders on the scale-down above referred to and profit-taking by shorts.

Today's prices were as follows: No-vember 9.56068.52: December 9.56068.57

Today's prices were as follows: No-ember, 9.50@9.52; December, 9.59@9.57; anuary, 9.65@9.66; March, 9.78@9.79; May, 9.90@9.91. The market closed strong.

CHICAGO. Paris on Tuesday. The nounced and general, resulted in the rout of the buils in the wheat market today. Almost everybody had grain for sale, apparently being unwilling to carry it over Sunday. The final bell found December 108%, a decline of 2½ from yesterday; May at 108%, a loss of 2½, and July at 97½, 1%c off. Even the shorts thought there was plenty of time to buy and did not get in on the decline.

to buy and did not get in on the deciline.

Corn went ½ to %c lower on selling of a heavy short in December. The weakness of wheat had a depressing influence throughout. The close December 48; May, 45½,45½, July, 45½.

The oats stood alone in the matter of strenth today. The trade was light to the finish, but the market was not much affected by the pronounced weakness in other markets. The close was ½ off for December and May.

Provisions grew very weak as the session approached the end, final prices showing a decline of 5 to 10c. The late buying evidently was for a scalp.

MOTHER AND CHILDREN HELD FOR MURDER

Mrs. Sophia Merritt and Her Three Sons and Daughters Jailed at Towanda, Pa.-Killed for $3 Each.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 19 .- Mrs. Sophia Merritt and her four children, Charles, Bigler, Nancy, and Alanzor Johnson were today held without bail by Judge Orcutt, of Towanda, for the murder of Mrs. Bigler Johnson, wife of the oldest son, and her niece, twelve years old, Alice Benjamin.

The evidence given at the conclusion of the two days' session included the confessions of Charles and Bigler Johnson, each of whom, while not denying part in the murderous plot, accuses the other of committing the crime.

Charles says his mother and brother Bigler killed the two, and that he and his brother Alanzon, set fire to the house and burned it. Bigler Johnson, whose wife was the victim, declares that he offered his mother and brother Charles, $3 each for killing his wife; that they did kill her and Alice, the child, who chanced to be in the house it the time.

Nancy and Alanzon Johnson, who are fourteen-year-old twins, corroborated the story of the plot and of firing the house. Some thirty-five witnesses gave evidence against the accused

Only the mother, cool, collected, and cynical, has made no confession or any admission of guilt. All are to be tried
